

Purchase Orders are a legally binding document created by a buyer (The Council) and presented to a seller Jenner (Contractors) Ltd. Much like your "cart" on Amazon or Ebay, a purchase order is essentially a list of what you want to buy. It lays out the order details, including quantity and types of products the buyer needs, as well as payment terms and delivery details.